FIRM PROFILE

THORNTON, BIECHLIN, SEGRATO, REYNOLDS & GUERRA, L.C.

THORNTON, BIECHLIN, SEGRATO, REYNOLDS & GUERRA, L.C. is primarily a litigation firm concentrating in the preparation and defense of civil law suits in state and federal court throughout Texas. The firm's founding partners began practicing together in San Antonio, Texas more than thirty years ago. With the addition of offices in McAllen and Austin, Texas, the firm is able to serve the needs of its clients throughout Texas. The firm and the attorneys are dedicated to providing the best possible legal services to its clients. This dedication includes coordinating efforts with each individual client to minimize the fees and related expenses connected with the litigation process.

Pride is justifiably taken in the reputation the firm has developed in the state as a whole. The firm is proud of its AV (highest) rating received from Martindale-Hubbell Directory of Attorneys which identifies and evaluates all lawyers and law firms within the United States based upon legal ability, ethical standards, and diligence. Attorneys in the firm presently hold memberships in the Texas Association of Defense Counsel, Defense Research Institute, Federation of Insurance Counsel, International Association of Insurance Counsel, State Bar of Texas, Federal Bar Association, Fifth Circuit Bar Association and other local associations.

Our attorneys are extremely well-qualified in the preparation, trial and appeal of civil litigation. The firm also employs a support staff which includes secretaries, paralegals, a registered nurse and other office personnel. Incorporated into the support system is a full and complete library and data processing equipment to provide efficient, stream-lined services to the client.

It is the firm's earnest goal to provide responsible legal representation to its clients and to continue to grow and expand its influences throughout the state.

DEFENSE SECTION

Although the firm's practice has expanded into other areas, such as labor and employment law, the firm began and expanded its practice primarily representing the interests of insurers, insureds and self-insured individuals and entities.

The firm's experience includes the preparation, trial and appeal of automobile, premises liability, construction, including construction defect, bad faith, business, employment discrimination, products liability, medical malpractice, legal and other professional malpractice, environmental and toxic torts, silicosis, and other property, fire, casualty and liability claims. The firm also handles workers' compensation and employment matters before various administrative bodies at both the state and federal level. Moreover, the firm provides coverage opinions, risk management advice, and other ancillary services to its clients.

The firm has always endeavored to keep pace with changes in the insurance and claims industry and prides itself on meeting the particular needs of each client in areas such as reporting, budgeting, and adherence to guidelines or special requirements.

Contact Richard J. Reynolds, III. See San Antonio Members under Professional Staff or e-mail at rreynolds@thorntonfirm.com.

PROFESSIONAL LIABILITY SECTION

The firm's Professional Liability Section consists of a Health Law Section and a General Professional Liability Section.

Health Law Section

The attorneys in the Health Law Section, which is headed by the firm's senior partner, Robert R. Biechlin, Jr., represent a variety of health care professionals in connection with both claims and lawsuits filed throughout Texas. Clients include physicians, hospitals, nursing homes, dentists, nurses and other health care professionals.

Contact Robert R. "Rusty" Biechlin. See San Antonio Members under Professional Staff or e-mail at rbiechlin@thorntonfirm.com.

General Professional Liability Section

The attorneys in the General Professional Liability Section, headed by Richard J. Reynolds, III, represent attorneys, accountants, architects and engineers, real estate professionals, and insurance brokers and agents throughout Texas in litigation arising from those practices.

Contact Richard J. Reynolds, III. See San Antonio Members under Professional Staff or e-mail at rreynolds@thorntonfirm.com.

CONSTRUCTION DEFECT LAW SECTION

The firm has vast experience in the complexities and challenges of construction defect law, including both commercial and residential cases. Our attorneys have worked on cases involving schools, hospitals, public buildings, large construction projects, and have handled both general contractor and subcontractor disputes. Every type of building system, including roofs, building envelopes, heating ventilating and air conditioning systems, plumbing systems, electrical systems, insulation and foundations, have regularly been handled by the members of the Construction Defect Law Section. Partner Robert Guerra periodically speaks on the subject of construction litigation to such groups as the American Institute of Architects and Associated General Contractors.

Contact Robert L. Guerra or Brad Bartlett. For Mr. Guerra, see McAllen Members under Professional Staff or email him at rguerra@thorntonfirm.com. For Mr. Bartlett, see San Antonio Members under Professional Staff or e-mail him at bbartlett@thorntonfirm.com.

LABOR & EMPLOYMENT LAW SECTION

The firm's employment law section represents management in a wide variety of employment law matters. Because we have offices located in Austin and McAllen, Texas, we can offer exclusive and timely insight into handling particular employment matters in diversified areas of the state. Of course, our focus is still on claim avoidance through timely advice and counsel before events occur which can lead to lawsuits; however, the firm has extensive jury trial experience in a wide variety of employment law matters. Our expertise includes the following areas:

- ❖ Management counseling;
- ❖ Review and preparation of personnel policy and procedures including employee handbooks;
- ❖ Representation in administrative matters before the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, Texas Commission on Human Rights and Texas Workforce Commission;
- ❖ Representation of management in state and federal court for employment related claims involving Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Americans with Disabilities Act, Age Discrimination in Employment Act, Polygraph Protection Act, Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act, Workers' Compensation Retaliation, Family Medical Leave Act, Fair Labor Standards Act, Texas Commission on Human Rights Act and a variety of state court claims such as intentional infliction of emotional distress, invasion of privacy, defamation and negligence;
- ❖ Preparation of arbitration agreements and non-subscriber programs;
- ❖ Training and preventative seminars to comply with recent U.S. Supreme Court decisions; and
- ❖ Wage/hour audits; FLSA claims.

WORKERS' COMPENSATION LAW SECTION

The Workers' Compensation Section of Thornton, Biechlin, Segrato, Reynolds & Guerra, L.C. provides expert support and representation of insurance carriers, self-insured employers, political subdivisions, third-party administrators and employers. Tim K. Singley, a partner based in the San Antonio office, serves as the head of the Workers' Compensation Section and is Board Certified in Workers' Compensation by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization. We provide our clients guidance at every level of a workers' compensation claim. With attorneys specializing in workers' compensation located in San Antonio, Austin, McAllen and Houston, our attorneys are available to cover all Texas venues. Our team assists in decision making prior to the claim reaching the administrative process, through every step of the administrative hearings process, appeal, judicial review, medical dispute resolution and compliance and practice defense. In addition, we provide Austin Board Representation for our clients. The team is comprised of sought after speakers who stay abreast of legislative developments and provide accredited continuing education seminars. Just an example of the comprehensive services provided:

- ❖ Consultation with claims management.
- ❖ Consultation regarding health care delivery options.
- ❖ Representation at administrative hearings regarding contested cases, as well as, resolving benefit disputes.
- ❖ Provide expert witness services.
- ❖ Consultation during audits.
- ❖ Defense for compliance and practice issues at the Division and the State Office of Administrative Hearings.
- ❖ Representation during the Medical Dispute Resolution process.
- ❖ Aggressive prosecution and defense through judicial review.
- ❖ Designated Austin Board Representation.
- ❖ Attend public hearings to represent the interests of clients.
- ❖ Educate clients regarding developments in the law.
